

Brewery News

What's occurring?

We're just getting our breath back after a successful festive season and making plans for the new year ahead! Rod and the team are busy brewing all your favourite ales and in a bid to be even more sustainable in 2023 we have joined forces with The Woodland Pig Company. They now have some very HAPPY PIGGIES munching away on our spent malt! Win win!

January

Sun 22nd Farnham Farmer's Market

February

Fri 10th, Sat 11th, Mon 13th
Valentine's in Festival Place

Sat 11th Alton Farmers' Market

Sun 26th Farnham Farmers' Market

March

Sat 11th Alton Farmers' Market

Fri 17th-Sat 18th Mother's Day in Festival Place

Sun 26th Farnham Farmers' Market

*Dry January is nearly done!
If you want to carry on the good work, our low alcohol option,
Skinny Dog will help you along just nicely at 1.5%!*

Brewer's Corner

- ◆ A Big Thank You to all those who contributed to our Christmas collection for the Basingstoke Food Bank.
- ◆ Rod has just brewed this Season's Special so you should see Black Crow, our favourite Winter Warmer, on the shelves in a few weeks time. Keep your eyes peeled!
- ◆ We had a fantastic events team in the run up to xmas. If you would like to join us for the summer season, please get in touch. Here is the criteria: you must like beer, be mobile and get a buzz from sales.

BEER FINDER just a few of the lovely pubs where you can regularly find Longdog Ales:*

The Old House at Home—Newnham

The Coach & Horses—Rotherwick

The Baverstock Arms—Milestones Museum

The Dice Tower Gaming—Basingstoke

The Plough—Little London

And for the next few weeks:

The Gamekeepers—Maple Durwell

Extended hours!! Brewery Tap & Shop

Open Tue –Wed 10-4, Thurs– Fri 10-5, Sat 10-1pm from 6th Feb